Dear Graduate:

Congratulations upon your graduation from high school – what an exciting moment! This is an important milestone in your life and you can be very proud of your accomplishments.

As you complete your secondary education and open the doors on your future, I am proud to extend my personal greetings and those of Prime Minister Trudeau and the Government of Canada.

Wherever you go from today, have confidence in yourself, and always remember the wonderful people along the way – parents, family members, teachers, coaches, group leaders, neighbours and friends – who have helped to build the foundations upon which you stand. I encourage you to use the knowledge and skills you have acquired to make a positive contribution to your community, your province and your country.

In 2017, the 150th anniversary of Confederation, we celebrate our shared history. Canada will always be a priceless “work-in-progress”, based upon the fundamental values of fairness, compassion, diversity and tolerance. As your generation takes charge of Canada’s destiny, these are qualities to be treasured and espoused.

I wish you all the very best as you take your place as a fully participating citizen of the best country in the world.

Sincerely,

Ralph Goodale, MP (Regina-Wascana)
Minister of Public Safety & Emergency Preparedness
